

WRRmod2021: Instructions for workshop organizers

Please follow these instructions carefully:

By June 15th

1. Please consider early-bird registration to WRRmod2021 via our website:
<https://www.wrrmod2021.org/registration-fees> (Early bird ends June 15th)
2. Encourage your fellow workshop organizers, presenters, and tentative attendees to do the same

By June 20th:

3. By default, we will assume you are using the provided Zoom platform for the workshop. However, you are free to choose and run your workshop on another platform. Please consider your options and make a choice. We will provide a meeting link to workshop attendees at a later stage.
4. Prepare an updated workshop description and upload via conftool (<https://www.conftool.org/wrrmod2021/>). To do so,
 - a. account for comments by the reviewers,
 - b. account for changes in scheduling (max. 5h). See <https://www.wrrmod2021.org/program> for the latest version of the program
 - c. adhere to the original template (<https://www.wrrmod2021.org/submissions>)
 - d. As an additional third page, please add
 - i. A 1-line indication of the platform of choice for your workshop (e.g., “I will use the Zoom platform provided by WRRmod2021”, “I will use my own MS Teams account to organize our workshop”, or a similar indication.)
 - ii. A 5-line summary of the workshop goals and plans so we can advertise your workshop to tentative attendees ahead of the seminar.
